GENERAL FURNISHING,

What are you wanting here? She made a dive among the duds, Poor Jason felt mighty queer. I really dont know what I want Unless it be yourself. Jasons bosom began to pant.

Afraid she would him shelf, She blushed awhile and then she spake These words to Jason Stubbs, (Jasons heart began to quake) He fell down among the tubs,

And felt just then as if he could Into a knot hole creep. Whilst Sally in a serious mood, Did at Jason slyly peep. Says Jason to the lovely girl,

I'll tell you now my heart is sought, By some that's got the pelf, But I'll not be either sold or bought, For I really love yourself. In storm and cloud you have been true, And bore up as best you could;

Of rivals you've had not a few, And some in a baffled mood. Then Sally blushed with sterling pride, THE BEST QUALITY. As she at Jason gazed, And he with open mouth so wide, Looked perfectly amazed.

> Warners Astronomical Prize. ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 17, 1887. From April 1st, 1887, to April 1st, 1888, I offer ($100) one hundred dollars for each and every discovery of a new comet made between the above dates, subject to the following three 1. It may be discovered either by the naked eye or telescope, but it must be unexpected, except as to the comet of 1815, which is now looked for. 2. (a) The discoverer, if residing in the United States or Canada, must send a prepaid telegram immediately to Dr. Lewis Swift, Director Warner Observatory, Rochester, N. Y., giving the time of discovery, the position and direction of motion with sufficient exactness, if possible to enable at least one other observer to find it. (b) Discoverers in the other countries Subscription received for all Eastern must send by immediate mail a full account of the discovery, as above required, to Dr. Lewis Swift as above. 3. In the United States and Canada this intelligence must not be communicated to any other party or "parties, either by letter, telegraph or otherwise until publicly announced through the press by Dr. Swift, which he will do at once on information of the discovery. Great care should be observed regarding this condition, as it is essential to prevent duplication of announcements and for the correct transmission of the discovery, with the name of the discoverer, which will be immediately made by Dr. Swift. Discoverers living in Continental Europe will receive their prizes from Warner's Safe Cure Establishment, 10 Schffæergasse, Frankfurt, a M, Germany; those living in Great Britain, from H. H. Warner & Co's Safe Remedies office, 47 Farrington St., E. C., London; those in Australasia and Asia from H. H. Warner & Co's Safe Cure Branch House, 147 Little Lonsdale St. W., Melbourne, Australia; for other parts of the world, prizes will be paid

Prizes will be awarded four (4) months after discovery and verification

Three disinterested scientists will be selected to settle any dispute that may arise regarding comet discoveries.

Slang and colloquialism may be pardoned in men who have not had the advantages of literary and theological training, when they are the media through which the preacher is able to convey wholesome truths, and when he has no other. But they come awkwardly from men who are polished and dignified both by nature and cultivation. Slang is not force, and while the peculiar expressions of the illiterate may be excused, they are not to be imitated-a fact which scholarly theclogians will do well to bear in mind,-

"Don't put all your eggs in one basket" is all wrong. I tell you "put all your eggs in one basket, and then watch that basket." Look around you and take notice; men who do that do not often fail. It is easy to watch and carry the one basket. It is trying to carry too many baskets that breaks most of the eggs in this country. He who carries three baskets must put one on his head, which is apt to tumble and SUCH BARGAINS AS DEFY COMPETITION. trip him up.
